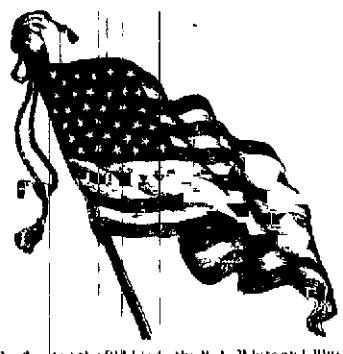
OFFICE AT CAPITAL OF THE CITY



No flag but the OLD FLAG—the Red White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union to look and true
Action and defend it—a sign of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your union must save

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1862

The Vancouver Imbroglio

We are not to say much more in relation to the charges made in other quarters in regard to disloyal declarations said to have been uttered by T H Smith late disunion democratic candidate for Territorial Councilman in Clarke county Washington Territory Mr Smith's defense has been published It consists mainly of affidavits made by A J Lawrence and P H Neyce which are to the effect that they did not hear Mr Smith at a certain time stated make use of the expression that he "wished ten thousand more Yankees had been killed at Bull Run" Mr Neyce goes further says he does not recollect Mr Smith saying that "if ten thousand more Yankees were killed it would close the war" We do not suppose that such remarks made at that time would have made a very strong impression upon the memories of these gentlemen They are very careful not to say that such remarks as charged against Mr Smith were not heard and "not remembered" by them We do not impeach their statements but their anxiety to protect Mr Smith is evidenced by their "kindly handing" him their affidavits—that is, by their voluntary service in his behalf on this occasion

We have been furnished with an additional document referring to this matter from which there can be no dodging It is an affidavit made by P A'Hern, Esq—a gentleman whose name was placed on the same ticket with that of T H Smith—and who for the last eight years has been Auditor of Clarke county, and is now re-elected to the same office In this affidavit he distinctly says what he repeatedly stated during the canvass and, in the truth of which we think he can not be mistaken He certainly impales on high Mr Smith and his witnesses We give the affidavit of Mr A Hern

TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON }
County of Clarke }

P A'hern, being duly sworn says that he was present in the store of Thomas H Smith in Vancouver, W T, and was listening to A J Lawrence reading from a newspaper the report of the disaster at Bull Run He says that he distinctly and positively heard Thomas H Smith, on that occasion, make use of the following language, to wit "If TEN THOUSAND MORE YANKEES WERE KILLED IT WOULD CLOSE THE WAR, THEN THEY WOULD ACCEDE TO THE CRITTENDEN COMPROMISE" He further says that Col Neyce was in the store at the time, in the back part engaged in writing

P A'HERN

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of July A D 1862

JNO D BOLE J P

We care not to push this matter any further—unless others who affect to feel themselves wronged, pursue a course to call out other affidavits—which would probably be equally strong against them, if not more so

We now give notice that the Union men of Clarke county will again be in the field at the election in July 1863

NOT SO BAD—The stabbing affray which occurred last week in Washington county did not amount to much serious damage, being only a flesh wound inflicted upon the person of one Thorp by Mr Wilkins The quarrel grew out of a political dispute Thorp advocating the rebel cause and Mr Wilkins for the Union

NEW LINE OF STEAMERS—The San Francisco Call learns by way of Panama that the Nicaragua Transit Company are actively engaged in the necessary preparations to put that route and place a line of steamers between here and New York The steamer Virgin, which was sunk during the reign of Gen Walker, has been raised repaired and the Company invite proposals for carrying on the road between Virgin Bay and San Juan del Sur and for mules for transportation of passengers The agent says two steamers will soon start from New York and trade with California will be reopened very shortly

RARE FRANKNESS—It makes a man feel rather squish towards his Southern brethren when he reads that at the battle of Bull Run a rebel soldier was wounded and taken to the Federal hospital tent That his arm was amputated by the surgeon in attendance who rendered him every attention in his power That in return for his kindness the rebel drew forth a concealed knife and murdered his attendant The surgeon parried the blow with his arm and with his left hand threw a pistol from his belt and killed the miscreant before he fell upon the operating board

The House has passed a bill abolishing Congressional mileage and extending its provisions to the present Congress

From our Salmon River Correspondent

Letter No IX

FLORENCE July 11th 1862

Many farms here continue to present rich Kimball & Reed took out their clean up on Miller's creek the other day one hundred and sixty four ounces with one string of sluices and ten hours run and have averaged about thirty pounds per week and about four thousand ounces have been taken from the Canadian above expenses Warren & Co on Napoleon gulch are making from two to three pounds per day with four men and one string of sluices Marple & Naver are taking out about fifty ounces per day with four men and one string of sluices Adams & Co on Napoleon Claim took out a couple of days ago one hundred and five ounces to one string of sluices washing one day one hundred and seventy eight ounces Numerous other instances might be named of rich yields I think these should be enough to have them from the owners of the claims on the ground

THE MINES BRIGHTEN UP

Notwithstanding these big yields and the fact that the miners here will pay eight dollars the amount of dust taken out is daily less owing to the failure of water Many good claims are useless at present and from appearances the yield in the next sixty days will not be half what it would be with the supply of water that was here sixty days ago The ditch companies are at work but they will be able this season to supply only Packer Gulch and some small claims this latter not sufficient water for the different camps if there were no other obstructions in the way

A TOUR FROM POWDER RIVER MINE TO FLORENCE

George A Ivkle with a party of others, has been from Powder river having come through to find a practical trail between the Salmon and Powder river mines He reports many men at work on Powder river and some of them making from five to ten dollars to the man He says the route is practicable for pack trains and the distance about one hundred miles On the summit between Snake and Salmon rivers Ivkle reports a lake one mile by some twelve miles east and west and extending southward as far as he could see generally level with fine grass and full of game such as sage hen and elk and the first day four bear and the next eight, and killed two The Indians have resented here to claim as theirs is a large trail leading out the valley Ivkle says there is a lake in it some eight miles by four deep and clear and full of fish and that the Payette and West Salmon rivers flow out of this Lake As much of this upper country is unexplored, I give these items for what they are worth but nowhere does the imagination grow more luxuriantly than in Salmon

ONE WAY TO GET TO SALMON

There is a few plain unfamiliar words in quarto ca vindo qui ci and one may have a month full of civilized on at the house of Dr Parker The Doctor passed the winter here but Mrs Parker and the children came up in April and at that time pack animals could go only to the Mountain House some eighteen miles from here and from there everything had to be packed by them at forty cents per pound, and at that rate the two younger children of the Doctor were brought in to the packers and brought to town The birds Dixie The Parker has a market value there, but they don't weigh him in and cut yet, perhaps Davis may when he gets his machine greased and running

KING TUCK

Knowledge acquired in the mines of California and Elsewhere has as value though the mines here are so dissimilar that the Californian often fears to take hold of a good thing and some witless scamp comes along and bears off the prize In fact Luck is King in Salmon The Irish are powerful here for rushes strikes and a fellow Cornish is made at home but sleep with one Haven't tried the prescription but will turn in some dark night and trust for the future to strong sea and fine combs!

A CHRISTIAN HEROINE

Preachers lawyers doctors and in fact all professions and nearly all trades are represented in the mines but of all classes I believe the lawyers do the least work They are good to take hold but barter to let go Col — and Lieut Col P of Oregon is a limb of the law and a capital fellow understands you have a good claim and are hard at work Why are — said he I have a claim and yesterday worked I had but the fact is shared a young man and an acquaintance came along and said to me Col I and work and you can make more with your white hands and you ought to give me your place and help me along I thought I ought to help the man and gave him my place It is not best to attribute indifferent motives when good ones will answer as well and I am happy to say that the genus I plucked thorps lives even in Salmon

THE WAY HERE

Snow is fast disappearing but many still seen in spots on the mountain summit We are pretty told of winter lingering in the lap of spring but the old reprobate in Salmon is caught at times dallying with the bosom of summer On the 30th ult it hailed and sleeted all forenoon and for three hours in the afternoon snowed fast and furious and the 4th presented us with strong ice and a heavy frost and several nights have still set Indeed Salmon is a strong She holds a strong hand and plays it with a slouched hat drawn over her eyes and if the

Keeps out put upon a fellow's assistance by the gun runs strong for the Union

THE INDIANS

Are supposed to have been sunk some 70 miles from here in the direction of Salmon and a good many are going there They have struck something but it is not known how rich Parties have gone who will have what I would term three months' provisions from now

A GOOD POINT—In Rev I Starr King's lecture the other evening upon the New National Union issued from the War he drew a parallel between the present struggle as one between National Unity and State Sovereignty On this he said they had encroached upon the rights of the United States Senate and the world had risen with a thunder while Daniel Webster and John C Calhoun united with patriotic hands But now the battered walls were thrown down and upon a continental field of battle the two banners fought with blood swords as Richmond and Richmond fight to the play But with this difference, added the speaker, our flag is red and conquers when Richmond falls

A dispatch from Fort Scott dated July 8th says A messenger from Indian Expedition to Fort Gibson reports detachments from 6th and 9th Kansas Regiments surprised Cherokees numbered 5000 Indians and upwards all their ammunition arms and camp fell into the hands of the Union forces Thirty rebels were found dead on the field

Gen Blunt has pursued Scott to Texas Kansas

SPRINGFIELD Mo July 17 An expedition under command of Maj Miller attacked the infamous Gen of Rains Cole Hunter Hawthorne and Terry 1000 strong 8 miles beyond Fayetteville Ark The Union victory completely routed them with heavy loss Our force did not exceed 600

CAIRO July 17 Passengers by Memphis papers report that Gen Price on Wednesday night moved his artillery from across the Mississippi river at Napoleon, Ark Another battery crossed on Sunday evening

Signals of men were crossing from Pine Bluff Miss in same direction apparently with a view of concentrating a force in Arkansas

Curtis army is said to be greatly in need of clothing many of them being without coats or shoes

CAIRO July 17 Rebel sources confirm the reported capture of Baton Rouge

NEW YORK July 17 The correspondence of the Tribune from the army of the Potomac dated July 16th says the position of the army is as follows the army near Harrisons Landing remains unchanged

It is reported that the main force of the rebels is not less than 150 miles from our lines The Herald's Washington dispatch says that notwithstanding rebel advances by the rebel troops are in great numbers with abundant artillery and plenty of supplies

CINCINNATI July 17 — During a thunder storm on Monday night a number of rebel prisoners confined at Camp Morton Indianapolis escaped five were killed and a number wounded and some of whom have since died

PHILADELPHIA July 17 — The Petersburg Express 11th reports the shelling of Hamilton N C by federal gunboats and announces also the death of Major Austin E Smith formerly Navy agent of San Francisco from wounds received in a late battle before Richmond

WASHINGTON July 11th —In Congress to-day a message was received from the President, inclosing and earnestly recommending a bill for the compensation of States which may abolish slavery The bill provides that whenever the President is satisfied that any State shall have fully abolished slavery within such State according to the census of 1860 he is authorized to issue to the State the full amount to be delivered at one or more times as he may think fit and in such installments as he may think proper If any State receiving the bonds shall reinstate or tolerate slavery within its limits, the bonds will be null and void The said State shall refund all interest which may have been paid

BALTIMORE July 18th A Federal prisoner escaped from Richmond estimates the number of rebel troops present in the vicinity of Richmond at 220 000 Large reinforcements from the interior of Petersburg had been arriving for the previous seven days which were said to be from the west Beauregard had been very sick at Richmond for several weeks Neither General McClellan or General Rosecrans was wounded as reported

A gunboat in the James of the Monitor class, though small, was rapidly approaching completion at Richmond Smeaton's alley was impressed into service turning iron for armor The defenses on James river were considerably weakened by the withdrawal of rebels Beauregard with his army was at Tupelo Mississippi on the Mobile and Ohio railroad Jackson with one half of the army which took Richmond has said to have come Lee has reinforced Early and Ewell who lie west of the mountains

Gen Halleck has issued an order that all persons found within our lines who harbor or conceal any soldier of the rebel army or who refuse to give information in their knowledge of the movements of the enemy when required to do so by officers of the United States shall be arrested as spies and punished with death by sentence of a military court

CITY.

MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Express Book Store, and at Charley Bernard's, Front street.

HORSE THIEVES.—Mr. Wesley Gosnell has been in this city for several days past, having pursued a couple of horse thieves from Olympia to this place. The rascals hired one of the horses from H. Winsor's stables, and the other from Charley Granger's, both in Olympia, under pretense of riding them to Monticello; but instead of stopping at that place, they brought them on to this city and sold them to other parties. Mr. Gosnell succeeded in getting one of the horses back, and ascertained where the other had been sold, but the individual who purchased the second horse had managed to run him off, and Mr. Gosnell leaves for Olympia this morning, deeming further pursuit for the present in vain. The man who refuses to deliver the horse to the rightful owner, is known as ——Brady, and lives about nine miles North of this city, towards the mouth of the river. The horse is a common sorrel horse, good size, about seven years old, with light mane. All persons are warned from purchasing the animal, as the proper owner may yet call for him, or compel the Brady to pay an equivalent.

ARRIVAL.—The Julia arrived at an early hour last evening, bringing down about sixty-five passengers, but no dust of any consequence, as there was no connection beyond the Dalles. Companies "C" and "D," California Volunteers, under command of Maj. Curtis, were brought down and landed at Vancouver by the Julia, en route for California, as previously announced. No news of importance from the upper country.

THE DIFFERENCE.—In the San Francisco papers, notices of the arrival of steamships from Portland and Victoria universally state the amount of shipment of gold dust from Portland to be much larger than from Victoria, which shows the difference in the yield between Salmon and Cariboo. The yield of our mines nearly double those of British Columbia.

THEATRE.—The play at the Theatre last night was very creditable. Mr. John Wood, in his comical character of "Crepin," in the "Wonderful Woman," was decidedly the best thing we have before seen on this stage. While Miss Belle Divine sustained her character as "Hortense," or the ambitious widow, admirably. The singing of Miss Belle Divine was truly excellent, and the whole performance was very well done, and seemed to please the entire audience. The house was well filled, and we may add that if this troupe continue to do as well as they did last night, they should receive the encouragement of full houses every evening while they remain in the city.

JEFF. DAVIS A PURITAN.—It seems that there is a little alloy in the chivalric blood of Jeff. Davis, if, the Nashville Union is to be credited, for it makes the following statement relative to his antecedents:

"Jeff. Davis' father lived for a number of years in a log cabin situated in what is now the town of Fairview, twelve miles from Hopkinsville, Ky. The house is now weather-boarded and used as a tavern. Old Davis was a man of bad character, a horse trader and speculator, and of very low habits. A fine horse was missing on one occasion in the neighborhood, under such suspicious circumstances that he found it safest to leave the county and fly to Mississippi. Jeff. Davis is an illegitimate son, born some miles distant from his father's house, and taken home by him when several years of age. These are notorious facts. Some of Davis' relatives still live in that part of Kentucky. We would never have alluded to this sinister bar on Jeff.'s escutcheon, were not his friends continually boasting about Southern gentility and the low breeding of Union people. Our own opinion is that Jeff.'s birth does him more credit than a portion of his subsequent life."

LIEUTENANT GENERALSHIP.—The resolution to create the rank of Lieutenant General, to be conferred by Brevet only, on the most meritorious officer of the war, has passed. It will give very general satisfaction in its present shape, we think. Let him who wins the golden spurs, wear them. It will be a proud position for some American General to occupy as the hero of the war.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Virginia soldier who is in one of our hospitals at Fortress Monroe, having been badly wounded and captured in an engagement on the Peninsula, decides not to return South. He has lost a leg, but thinks he will go to come North and learn a trade, "saddlery, tailoring, or something of the kind," he says, and that "maybe, in a year or two, he would make enough to buy himself a cork leg, as he never would be able to procure one in the South."

THE "C. S. A." Says an exchange have taken the very name to which they are justly entitled. They are in fact, the "Colored States of America!" Their secession and treasonous warfare have proved them to be the "Coward States of America;" and soon they will be the "Conquered States of America."

C. S. A.—Colored States of America.
C. S. A.—Coward States of America.
C. S. A.—Conquered States of America.

"If I should be drafted into the service, what would you do?" said a gentleman to his wife lately. "Get a substitute for you, I reckon," said the lady, whereupon the worst was changed the subject of conversation.

Better Late than Never

Life is a race who to some success I
While others are beginning,
Tis luck to some and others sp
That gives an early warning,
But if you chance to fall behind
Or are slacken in your speed
Just keep this wholesome truth in mind—
'Tis better late than never

And if you keep short ac well
But never trip your neighbor
'Tis noble when you are
By honest, patient labor
But if you are outstripp
Press on as bold as ever
Remember the slighty
'Tis better late than never

Never labor for an idle
Or sit by over another
But while you strive your uttermost
Deal fairly with a brother
Whoever your station in your
And hold your purpose
And if you fail to beat the rest
'Tis better late than never

Choose well the path in which you run—
Success by no is finding
Then though the last who first to won
Your crown is with the warmin
Then never feel it left behind
Nor slacken your endeavor
But ever keep this truth in mind
'Tis better late than never

NEGRO LABOR WANTED AT SAINT CROIX — Col. Rasloff, Charge d Affaires of Denmark, has addressed a letter to the Secretary of State upon the subject of the advantages offered by the Island of St Croix for the employment of persons of this country of African extraction, and negroes found on board vessels captured by our cruisers Free transportation is offered to all who will engage to labor on the sugar plantation for three years, at the same compensation as given to the native population. Recaptured Africans, however, being semi-savages, must undergo apprentice ship. Secretary Seward has replied that he is not authorized to act in the premises, as the disposition of recaptured Africans is now prescribed by law. Col Rasloff, in response, says the plan he had furnished would be entirely satisfactory, from a Christian and humane point of view, and would moreover relieve the United States from a great moral responsibility, and from the very large expense which, if he was correctly informed, is connected with the present arrangements for the transfer of re captured Africans to the Republic of Liberia.

REBEL RECOGNITION — A curious letter has been written by Mr Rost, Confederate Wandering Agent in Search of Recognition directed to R. M. T Hunter, Rebel Secretary of State, and dated, 'Madrid, March 21st, 1862." Mr. Rost arrived at the Spanish Capital just as the news of the fall of Fort Donelson was known there, and he had hard work to convince the Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs that that event was a matter of no consequence to the Confederate traitors. The Spanish Minister wanted to know what encouragement toward recognition he had got from other Governments Rost told him, with a degree of truth not often displayed by rebel emissaries, that the Emperor Napoleon would, under no circumstances, incur the enmity of the North by being the first to recognize the Confederate Government, and finally after exhausting argument with the Spanish Excellency, Rost left his presence satisfied that Spain was not inclined, hurriedly at least, to recognize a bogus Government

ARMORED SHIPS NOW BUILDING — The six new iron war vessels now building are larger and far more powerful than the Monitor, but the principle of their construction is the same The turrets are 21 inches in diameter and 11 inches thick—which is 3 inches thicker than the Monitor's. The armor plates are 6 inches thick. Each vessel is to be armed with two 15-inch guns, which is four inches larger than those of the Monitor Their speed will be 10 miles per hour. An error exists in the popular mind as to the sea-going properties of these vessels—it being generally supposed that they are unsuited to outside service. It was demonstrated by the run of the Monitor from New York to Hampton Roads that she is as staunch and safe as the best modeled ship. The new vessels will be equally safe, and well adapted for service at sea

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNORS AND THE WAR — The Butte Record says:

"Gov. Sprague of Rhode Island was the only Democratic Governor in America at the time the war began, and was among the first to lead troops to the nation's capital"

And to this the Sacramento Bee smugglingly responds by proving that there were seventeen Democratic Governors at the outbreak of the war, all but four, of whom were leading or raising troops to be led "to the nation's capital," anterior to the action on the part of Gov Sprague—and the only difference between them was that while Sprague was going to defend it, the other Democratic Governors were going to destroy it' And what is a singular fact, also, no Governor but a Democratic one led troops or raised troops to be led against the nation's capital'—Marysville Appeal

DEMOCRACY DEAD —Here is what the editor of the Lynn Bay State who has been among the leaders of the Democracy in Massachusetts, says in allusion to the Vallandigham scheme to reconstruct the old party

"As much as we have loved, and as strongly as we have been attached to the old Democratic party, and as ardently as we have desired its success and perpetuity, we are forced into the conclusion that it has had its day, that it is dead and buried, past resurrection It was more than wounded it was killed in the house of its friends The assassin's hands were raised against it at Charleston it received the fatal blow of the traitors at Baltimore, and at the last Presidential election it breathed its last One man only could have raised it from the dead and the Almighty in His wisdom, saw fit to take him to Himself Some of the recreants who banded in the murder, now seek to bring it to life again We will not join with them, even if they could rub the bloody stain from their hands

Gen Tom Thumb has closed his peregrinations for the season The little gentleman will leave the Atlantic for California in October. Having made the tour of the State he will sail for Australia and proceed thence to Europe, and return to Connecticut where he will retire to private life

MRS. LINCOLN —The New York Herald says that Mrs Lincoln has at length sufficiently recovered from her recent severe family bereavement to venture forth and resume her missions of mercy She visits the hospitals, brings kind gifts and kinder words to our sick and wounded soldiers, and wherever she is welcomed as the fit wife of our beloved President.

Items

Our 1st Maryland surrendered at Front Royal to the 1st Maryland in the rebel army Being old neighbors friends, and in some instances relatives, they rushed into each others arms calling each other by their Christian and nick names

Gov Johnson of Tennessee is expelling all the blatant Secessionists to go South Beyond the Union lines under pain of being treated as spies if they return, unless they are willing to take the oath of allegiance and give bonds of $1,000 for its faithful observance

Henry Clay grandson of the Sage of Ashland and son of him who gave up his life on the battle field of Buena Vista died on the 9th inst, in Louisville of typhoid fever contracted in the camp He held rank in the United States Army of Captain and was serving as Aid to Gen R W Johnson

The Montgomery (Ala) Advertiser one of the chief fomenters of the rebellion is now severely harsh upon what it calls the incompetent leaders of the Southern people It aims especially at Jeff Davis and sets him up with particular venom Secret and blind confidence it says has been the bane of the rebellion

Emigration to this country is on the increase in Ireland The class of persons now seeking for a home in a new world is composed not entirely of farm servants but of farmers, tradesmen laborers and house servants, who cannot procure a decent living in the land of their birth This increased emigration is attributable to landlord extermination in the midland, northern and western parts of the country

A recent number of the Memphis Avalanche a furious Secession sheet, warns the Southern people against permitting the formation of guerrilla bands Both sides must eventually, if they do not already, recognize the fact that guerrillas are nothing else than land pirates

To show how sickness has been at work in the armies of the West, we may state on the authority of a letter from Pittsburg Landing dated June 1st, that for 20 days previous to May 20th, 11,000 sick soldiers left Halleck's army for home, hundreds and perhaps thousands never to return. Since the battle of Shiloah, it is safe to say that the army lost from 30 to 40,000 men in this way alone.

The Oregon City Argus says: "A man named Stevenson, from Umpqua, in a fit of temporary insanity, jumped from the second story of the Oregon House in this city, and injured himself so that he died a day or two afterward."

SEWING MACHINES

ARE EXCELLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE simple in its construction, and easily kept in order should make a right lock stitch, alike on both sides of the material and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed

It should be able to use cotton thread or silk directly from the spool and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension It should also be able to make the tension great or less, as both the under and upper thread are used uniformly, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break

The needle should have perpendicular motion this is absolutely necessary for heavy work

It should be able to bind with or without, hem with a hemmer should stitch, fell run and gather and should always do it well

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides the work and of using different colored thread on all kinds of work to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united

It should be able to make a long or short stitch and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing, tightly at the first stitch and to run it off, and make it a little loose

It should have a wheel-feed no others are in constant contact with the work

It should not be liable to get out of order neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress

It should not have a fringe on the under side of the work
